Notes to Know

Fireworks Are Banned in Coralville

If you are thinking about lighting off fireworks in Coralville, leave it to the experts. It is illegal to use fireworks in Coralville, with the exception of fireworks displays handled by insured operators and approved by the City. Violators face a minimum fine of $250 and can be held liable for any damages they cause. Many surrounding communities also prohibit their use.

Even though fireworks can be sold in Coralville, they can’t be used in Coralville. The State legalized the sale of consumer fireworks, and fireworks sales require a license from the State. A city ordinance regulates where they can be sold.

If not putting on your own backyard fireworks display fizzles your fun, remember that novelty fireworks—sparklers, snakes, or snaps—remain legal.

REPORT ILLEGAL FIREWORKS | Call the Police non-emergency line at 319.248.1800 and provide the location and any additional information. Police will respond to fireworks-related calls as officers are available. Only call 911 for emergencies.

WHERE TO SEE FIREWORKS | Don’t miss Coralville’s annual 4thFest fireworks display on July 4 in S.T. Morrison Park beginning around 9:45 pm. Coralville’s fireworks are discharged by trained pyrotechnicians from the Coralville Fire Department, and the show is spectacular!

Be a Responsible Pet Owner

Local animal laws help keep our parks, trails, and neighborhoods safe and enjoyable for everyone—including our four-legged friends.

KNOW THE LEASH LAW | Leashes help prevent pets from getting lost or from chasing other animals or people. Pets must be on a leash at all times, unless within the owner’s enclosed property or tethered. A leash should be sufficient to hold the animal in check, and should be no longer than 20 feet. If you use a retractable leash, keep your pet reined in beside you and lock the retractor when other people or animals are near.

WATCH YOUR PETS | Pet owners are responsible for keeping their pets reined in at all times. Animals can react suddenly to loud noises, other animals, people, and the environment, so make sure you are capable of keeping your pet controlled. If you are walking more than one animal, make sure you can control all your leashed pets.

LEAVING HOME | When you and your pet are off your property, never leave your pet unleashed, tied, or unattended. If your pet is with you—but unleashed—while walking, jogging, cycling, visiting parks, or anywhere on public property, it is in violation of the law.

SCOOP THE POOP | Always pick up after your pets. Not only is it the right thing to do, it helps prevent the spread of bacteria and parasites that can cause illness or linger in the soil. Throw pet waste bags in the trash, or take them with you if there is not a public trash can. Do not compost it or throw it in a yard waste collection bag.

Water Report Available Online

Coralville’s annual Consumer Confidence Report from the Coralville Water Department is available at www.coralville.org/WaterReport. Copies are available by request at utilitybilling@coralville.org or 319.248.1770.
Raising Backyard Chickens in Coralville

On November 10, 2020, the City Council passed Ordinance 2020-1012 allowing residents to keep up to six chickens (no roosters) in Coralville. A permit is required to raise or keep chickens within Coralville. Residents may only keep chickens after their permit has been approved.

Preparing to Own Chickens in Coralville

If you are thinking about owning chickens, here are some notes to know:

- There are rules and regulations to obtain a permit.
- There are requirements about where and how you can keep chickens in Coralville.
- You must take an educational class about raising urban chickens.
- There are fees associated with the permit process.
- A property inspection is a required part of the permit process.

Permit Fees

$25.00 | Permit application fee
$5.00 | Chicken ID leg band
(price per band; 1 band per chicken)

Chicken Permits & How to Apply

- Visit www.coralville.org/urbanchickens. Read and understand the Urban Chicken Ordinance (55A).
- Successfully complete the required training class about raising urban chickens.
- Complete the Urban Chicken Permit Application.

Urban Chicken Permits are valid for a calendar year. Each permit expires on December 31.

Are you thinking of installing solar on your property? A limited-time program provides access to solar education and competitive prices for residential, business, and farm solar installations through volume purchasing. The “Grow Solar Linn + Johnson Counties” program is available to residents throughout both counties, and makes solar more accessible and affordable in our community.

Group purchase programs provide residents and businesses with the opportunity to invest in high-quality, renewable energy solar installations and realize savings and sustainability. Estimated first-year savings on utility bills have ranged from $690 to more than $1,000, depending on the size of the solar array.

Savings & Sustainability

Previous programs in Johnson and Linn counties helped a combined 413 households add affordable solar to their homes or properties, with participants saving 9% to 15% off purchase price thanks to the group buys. In total, the programs resulted in nearly 2.8 MW of clean solar capacity valued at approximately $6.7 million. Solar installations added through the earlier group buys in Linn and Johnson counties offset the equivalent of 5,168,213 pounds of carbon dioxide in a single year. That’s the equivalent of carbon sequestered by over 3,000 acres of forest!

How to Participate

You can sign up to attend a free informational “Solar Power Hour” session online to learn about the basics of solar and figure out if solar is right for you—plus learn about how the Grow Solar Linn + Johnson Counties program works. After the session, you can sign up for a free cost estimate and site assessment. To register for an informational webinar and to sign up for program alerts, visit linnjohnson.growsolar.org.

Grow Solar Linn + Johnson Counties is administered by the Midwest Renewable Energy Association (MREA) at no cost to the counties or other program partners.
BE KIND WITH BARKING
If your pet is noisy, consider your neighbors. Under City Code 55.10, a noisy animal is considered a nuisance if it barks, bays, howls, or cries continuously for ten minutes or barks intermittently for a half hour or more, and the sound is audible across a residential boundary.

If you are dealing with excessive barking in your neighborhood, speak with your neighbor if you are comfortable. Some pet owners may not be aware that their neighbors can hear their dog barking. Or, contact Animal Control at 319.248.1800.

GARbage
Move your cart. Trash and recycling can be set out for pickup up to 24 hours before your collection day. Remove empty carts and bins after collection, or make arrangements if you’re leaving town—carts and bins left at the curb risk blowing into the street, and neglected carts (as well as newspapers) can be a signal to burglars that no one is home.

GRass & WEEDES
Know when to mow. Property owners are responsible for mowing and trimming their property. The maximum height for grass and weeds is 10 inches. (Some weeds grow faster than the grass, but the height of the majority of the grass and weeds in lawn areas should not exceed 10 inches; garden plants and ornamental grasses are excluded). When mowing, do not leave grass clippings in the street. Report long grass and weeds at 319.248.1740 or www.coralville.org/letusknow.

PARKING
Park in the right place. Parking is allowed only on hard surfaces such as a concrete driveway leading to a garage or carport. Most residential streets in Coralville are zoned with a “No Parking Between 2:00 am-6:00 am” sign. Parked cars should never block the sidewalk or a mailbox, and parking between the sidewalk and curb is not allowed. The Post Office cannot deliver mail to a mailbox if a car is parked in front of it.

STORM DRAINS
Only rain goes down storm drains. Never use a storm drain to get rid of grass clippings, chemicals, or other pollutants. To report a stormwater concern, call 319.248.1799.

SAFETY
Be aware. Neighbors are often the eyes and ears of the neighborhood. If you see suspicious activity in your neighborhood, report it to the Coralville Police Department at 319.248.1800.

YARD SIGNS
Put signs in the right place. You can put temporary yard signs (such as garage sale or political signs) in your yard, but not in the right of way (the area between the sidewalk and the street, including street corners, road medians, roundabouts, and utility poles). You must have the property owner’s permission before putting a sign anywhere, including vacant property.

Take down temporary signs within 24 hours after the event. Signs in the right of way or on public property will be removed, or the business/property owner will be cited. Report sign issues at www.coralville.org/letusknow.

FIND YOUR PROPERTY LINES
Whether mowing your yard or installing a fence, knowing where your property lines are can avoid problems in the future. Review your approximate lot boundaries online at https://gis.johnson-county.com/PIV, or locate the property pins on your lot.

GOOD NEIGHBORS MAKE GREAT NEIGHBORHOODS! FOLLOWING CITY ORDINANCES, BEING MINDFUL OF NOISE, AND MAINTAINING YOUR PROPERTY CAN HELP BUILD POSITIVE NEIGHBORHOOD CONNECTIONS.

Times and events subject to change.
The Danny Whitson Band is a high energy band playing both original music and country covers. Danny Whitson grew up in a small town in eastern Iowa. His first single, “Move On,” has been played on radio stations in the United States, Canada, and England. He has opened at concerts including performances by Jerrod Niemann, Emerson Drive, Diamond Rio, Sawyer Brown, John Anderson, Phil Vassar, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Joe Diffie, LoCash, and Alan Jackson.

MCA Nashville recording artist and multi-platinum-selling star Josh Turner will headline Coralville’s free summer concert in S.T. Morrison Park. For nearly two decades, Turner has been one of country music’s most recognizable voices, selling more than 8.5 million units and amassing more than 2.5 billion global streams.

Turner’s new album is aptly titled “Country State of Mind.” From the very start of his career through chart-topping hits like “Your Man,” “Would You Go With Me,” “Why Don’t We Just Dance,” and “All Over Me,” Turner has immersed himself in country music’s history and its iconic figures.

Later, as the hits came, along with multiple GRAMMY, CMA, and ACM nominations, Turner joined the Grand Ole Opry. One of country music’s oldest and most hallowed traditions, the Opry once counted Hank Williams Sr., Johnny Cash, and George Jones among its ranks; now, Turner shares membership with heroes like Randy Travis, Alan Jackson, and Patty Loveless, as well as Chris Janson.

Public Health Is a Priority
We are working to ensure that 4thFest 2021 is a safe outdoor celebration that aligns with health guidelines. With ample space to spread out, increasing COVID-19 vaccinations in our community, and careful planning, we are excited to provide a way for our community to safely come together in person. Additional details about guidelines will be released closer to the event.

Your responsibilities: If you attend 4thFest, follow public health guidelines for mask wearing, keeping a distance between households, washing hands, and adhering to any other current precautions. If you are not feeling well or have had contact with someone who tested positive for COVID-19 in the past two weeks, please stay home.

On Tuesday evening, August 3, Coralville neighborhoods are invited to take part in the annual National Night Out. Turn on your porch light, lock your door, go outside, and get to know your neighbors from a safe distance!

Get to Know Your Neighbors

National Night Out is one night a year for neighbors to connect while strengthening police-community relationships.

The Coralville Police Department invites neighborhoods to host block parties on August 3. The block parties give neighbors a chance to meet through simple neighborhood events. Neighborhoods can host a party in a way that safely suits their residents. Representatives from the Coralville Police Department, Fire Department, and City Council will visit as many registered parties as they can.

Strong neighborhood ties can build community partnerships and create watchful eyes in neighborhoods, which help to promote crime prevention. Block party registration opens later this summer at www.coralville.org/NationalNightOut. For more information, contact the Coralville Police Department at 319.248.1800.

National Night Out is subject to change based on public health recommendations. Gatherings should follow the current guidelines for mask wearing, social distancing, size of gatherings, and other precautions.

Friendly Reminders for Recycling & Yard Waste

The City of Coralville provides weekly yard waste and recycling collection for single family and duplex housing; it is picked up on the same day as your trash collection. If you have private refuse collection, your recycling and yard waste guidelines may be different.

Recycling Tips

- Rinse out all containers before placing in the recycling bin.
- If empty jars, bottles, and cans have visible residue, they may result in contamination and the load cannot be recycled.
- Sort paper, plastic, and aluminum/tin into separate sacks in your recycling bin (do not tie sacks).
- Flatten cardboard into sections no larger than 2’ x 3’ and place under recycling bin.
- Do not place styrofoam in your recycling bin, it is not recyclable. Place styrofoam in the trash, or save to reuse.
- Learn more: www.coralville.org/recycling or call 319.248.1740.

Yard Waste Bags & Containers

- Full yard waste bags and containers cannot weigh over 40 pounds.
- Yard waste will only be picked up if it’s in a 33-gallon container with an annual yard waste sticker, or in a Coralville biodegradable yard waste bag; other yard waste bags will be left at the curb.
- Buy bags in packages of five for $5, or individually for $1 each, at:
  - Coralville City Hall, 1512 7th St.
  - Coralville Hy-Vee, 1914 8th St.
  - Coralville Hy-Vee, 3285 Crosspark Rd.
  - Theisen’s, 100 Westcor Dr.

Brush & Tree Limbs

How to prepare brush and tree limbs for curbside pick up:

- Securely tie brush and tree limbs in bundles.
- Bundles should be no greater than 18 inches in diameter.
- Individual limbs in the bundles must be no larger than 2 inches in diameter and 4 feet long.
- Learn more: www.coralville.org/yardwaste or call 319.248.1740.
Iowa River Trail
Rocky Shore Drive to Clear Creek

A long-awaited segment of the Iowa River Trail is nearing completion. Construction is progressing on the 10-foot wide concrete trail extension from CRANDIC Park in Iowa City (near Rocky Shore Drive) to the existing intersection of the Clear Creek Trail and Iowa River Trail just north of the confluence of Clear Creek and the Iowa River. When completed, trail users will enjoy the 1.6 mile route along the Iowa River from CRANDIC Park in Iowa City to the north end of the Iowa River Landing Wetland Park in Coralville.

Construction began in October 2020 and a milestone was reached in early February with the installation of two pedestrian bridge spans over Clear Creek. Trail paving and lighting installation continue this spring. Overall project completion is expected by July 1, 2021. The project was let by the Iowa DOT in August 2020, and the low bid was Peterson Contractors, Inc., at $1,250,395.65. The project received $619,000 of DOT Surface Transportation Program funds, with the remaining balance funded by the City. Learn more about this project at www.coralville.org/IowaRiverTrail.

Clear Creek Trail to extend to Tiffin (eventually!)

The Clear Creek Trail starts at the confluence of Clear Creek and the Iowa River and follows Clear Creek west to the Coralville Creekside Ballpark, a distance of approximately 5 miles.

Due to ongoing bridge construction for the I-80 & I-380 Interchange, the trail segments under the interstates will not be constructed until 2024. When the final segments are completed in Coralville, the Clear Creek Trail through Coralville and Tiffin will be over 9 miles long. Longer-term goals include extending the Clear Creek Trail to Kent Park and the Amana Colonies.

Meet Scott Larson, City Engineer

Scott Larson was appointed City Engineer effective April 1, 2021. Scott has worked for the City since 1993 when he was hired as an engineering intern, and had served as Assistant City Engineer since 1995. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Iowa and is a licensed Professional Engineer in the State of Iowa.

During Scott’s 28 years with the City of Coralville, he has been involved in hundreds of street, utility, and public infrastructure projects. Scott replaces City Engineer Dan Holderness, who retired in March after over 34 years in the position.
Coralville Transit Fares & Passes

Changes Will Bring Consistency for Area Transit Systems

Changes are coming to Coralville Transit that will make fares and passes consistent between Coralville Transit and Iowa City Transit, and will better coordinate service between the area transit systems.

The City of Coralville held a public hearing on proposed changes to Coralville Transit fares and passes at the Coralville City Council meeting on May 25, 2021. Approved changes will take effect on July 6, 2021.

No rate increases to Coralville Transit are proposed. The changes include a new reduced youth fare of $0.50 for riders age 5-18 years old, and three new types of passes for Coralville Transit: a 24 hour pass, a 10-ride pass, and a youth 31-day pass. The adult fare remains the same.

The changes are a result of the Iowa City Area Transit Study that started in August of 2019. The transit study reviewed bus routes, stops, schedules, fares, and transfer policies, and looked at ways to better coordinate area transit systems. Based on the study, Coralville Transit also implemented new routes and schedules in October of 2020.

To view fares and passes, visit www.coralville.org/transit.

MEET THE DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

Meet Rori Carlo, Director of Marketing at Xtream Arena. Rori is the point of contact for media, public relations, marketing, and advertising for the facility.

Rori worked in college athletics for 12 years before being hired at Xtream Arena, most recently at Oregon State Athletics. She also worked for five and a half years in the University of Iowa Athletics Marketing department. Rori was born in Iowa City, raised in Lincoln, Nebraska, and studied marketing at the University of North Dakota. Rori is an avid Chicago Cubs fan and has a 4-year-old boxer named Ivy.

June 9 | A Time for Mercy

by John Grisham

Jake Brigance is appointed to defend a teenager accused of murdering a local deputy. Brigance risks his career and the safety of his family to save the boy from a death sentence in this legal thriller.

July 14 | Gallows Court

by Martin Edwards

“Very highly atmospheric, spine-tingling fun, the way that Edwards keeps deepening the creepiness of this mystery until the very end is utterly stunning.” – Booklist

August 11 | When No One is Watching

by Alyssa Cole

“Combining voyeuristic paranoia of the film Rear Window with the searing social commentary of Get Out, this thriller…turns gentrification into fodder for a horror movie.” – Entertainment Weekly
