FRY Fest Sports Activities & Events for All Ages

Friday, September 3

Get an early start on Labor Day weekend at the second annual FRY Fest – a “celebration of all that is Hawkeye” – on Friday, September 3 in the Iowa River Landing. The festival, named in honor of former University of Iowa football coach Hayden Fry, offers numerous free family-friendly activities for both sports aficionados and those looking for a one-of-a-kind community event.

Ceremony & Car Show

Stop by Kinnick Stadium at 9:00 am, when the University of Iowa will host a ceremony unveiling Evashevski Drive in honor of former University of Iowa Football Coach Forest Evashevski. From 10:00 am to 2:00 pm, classic cars and Hawkeye-inspired rides will line E. 9th Street at the FRY Fest Show and Shine Car Show.

1960 and 1985 football teams, both of which were Big Ten champions and qualified for Rose Bowl berths — don't miss a chance to meet and greet these athletes!

Evening Activities

The excitement continues at 5:30 pm with a Hawkeye Pep Rally at the Iowa River Landing. Special appearances include Coaches Lisa Bluder and Tom Brands, Herky, Hawkeye Marching Band, Iowa Cheerleaders, Iowa Dance Team, the 2010 Iowa Hall of Fame Class, former student-athletes, and more. At 6:00 pm, join the community challenge to beat the current official world record for the largest Hokey Pokey dance.

As the sun sets, take in a large scale, outdoor ticketed concert under the backdrop of the Iowa River Landing with performances by area favorites, The Nadas, followed by the legendary Three Dog Night. All concert and beverage garden proceeds support Coralville's 4thFEST celebration.

Coralville Transit and Cambus are offering free shuttle service to and from the Iowa River Landing; see the schedule at the front of this issue for complete details. FRY Fest is open to the public and is sponsored by the City of Coralville, Iowa City/Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the University of Iowa. For more information or to volunteer, visit www.FRYfest.com or call 319.337.6592.

Tradeshow, Activities, & More

A sea of black and gold, in the spirit of the Hawkeyes, can be found at the FRY Fest tradeshow from 10:00 am to 8:00 pm inside the Coralville Marriott Hotel and Conference Center. From apparel to furniture, gadgets to jewelry, and outdoor items to customized products, the tradeshow is a unique showcase of licensed Hawkeye merchandise available for purchase from exhibitors across the region.

The day is filled with appearances and autographs by current and former student-athletes and coaches, contests, prizes, radio remotes and interviews, Rose Bowl exhibits, face painting, activities, special appearances, food, and more. This year commemorates the respective 50th and 25th anniversaries of the

Three Dog Night & The Nadas in Concert at the Iowa River Landing

Proceeds to Benefit Community

FRY Fest presents a dynamic outdoor concert experience on Friday, September 3 at the Iowa River Landing, adjacent to the Coralville Marriott Hotel and Conference Center. Enjoy performances by Des Moines area rockers The Nadas and legendary music icons Three Dog Night. Food and beverages cap off a remarkable evening as Labor Day weekend begins.

The Nadas kick off the show at 7:00 pm. The strong regional following of The Nadas has continuously grown since the band formed sixteen years ago. Once called "The best college band you've never heard of," The Nadas' music has been labeled acoustic rock, folk rock, alternative, and indie. Their most recent album, Almanac, garnered extra attention for its creative process, when the band streamed every step of creating the album live on the band's website and invited the feedback of fans to shape the album project.

The Nadas

At 9:00 pm, Three Dog Night, whose music winds through the fabric of pop culture today, take the stage. Hits such as "Joy to the World," "Black and White," and "Shambala" have been loved by audiences since the band began in 1968, and tens of millions of Three Dog Night albums have been sold through the years. This Grammy-nominated band continues to top the list of artists with the best Billboard Top 100 Chart average.

Advance tickets are available through September 2 for $10, and $15 the day of the show, at Coralville City Hall, Coral Ridge Mall Guest Welcome Center, the Iowa City/Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, and at www.fryfest.com. Admission is free for children age five and under; coolers are prohibited on the concert grounds. Making the concert truly a community event, all proceeds from the concert and beverage garden benefit Coralville's free 4thFEST celebrations.

Three Dog Night

The dance moves are simple, participating is free, and the challenge is open to the public! The official record attempt takes place at 6:00 pm, with check-in at 5:30 pm. Visit www.fryfest.com/hokey_pokey for more information.

Projects Update

Businesses Remain Accessible Throughout First Avenue Construction

First Avenue Bridge & Road Reconstruction Projects

Reconstruction is nearly complete on the west half of the 1st Avenue Bridge over Clear Creek, the west half of 1st Avenue between Clear Creek and 5th Street, and the south half of 5th Street between 1st and 2nd Avenues. Once this phase of construction is complete, traffic will be switched to the west lanes of 1st Avenue in order to begin demolition and reconstruction of the east half of the bridge and to start reconstruction of the east half of 1st Avenue. Five traffic lanes on the bridge and 1st Avenue are anticipated to be completed by December 2010. Completion of the 1st Avenue Bridge over Clear Creek is expected in March 2011. Completion of 1st Avenue between Clear Creek and 6th Street is expected in June 2011.

Flood Recovery & Protection of First Avenue Corridor

This project involves construction of berms, flood walls, and three storm water pump stations along the west side of the Iowa River from I-80 south to the north end of the Iowa River Power Company parking lot, except for the Marriott Hotel and Conference Center area. Construction has begun on two of the storm water pump stations, berms, and private utilities relocation. This project is scheduled for completion in January 2011.

I-JOBS Flood Recovery & Protection / Iowa River Landing Wetlands Park Improvements

This project features flood walls and improvements to the Wetlands Park including elevated walkways, stone walkways, water cascade, comfort station, and interpretive signage between the Marriott Hotel and Conference Center and the Iowa River. Construction has begun on the flood walls and the elevated walkway is being fabricated. Phase 1 construction, including the elevated wetland walkway and water cascade, is scheduled for December 2010 completion; Phase 2 construction of the comfort station, paved trail, and Wetlands Park planting is scheduled for August 2011 completion.

Installation of the Muddy Creek pedestrian bridge

First Avenue Trail: Country Club Drive to Oakdale Boulevard

The 1st Avenue Trail should be nearing completion by time of this publication. The project included installation of a new pedestrian bridge over Muddy Creek, and extension of the existing 8-foot wide trail along 1st Avenue from Country Club Drive north to Oakdale Boulevard, where the trail connects to the Oakdale Boulevard Trail. The project received 100% funding from The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

First Avenue Construction & Hayden Fry Way Getaway

Continue to support 1st Avenue / Hayden Fry Way businesses as construction of five lanes, a new bridge, improved storm sewers, pedestrian underpass, and extra-wide sidewalks continues. Register at any 1st Avenue business for the Hayden Fry Way Getaway -- a trip for two to the Iowa versus Arizona football game from September 16 through 19, including round trip air from Cedar Rapids to Tucson, three nights at the Tucson Marriott University Park, game tickets, and ground transfers. The drawing will take place at FRY Fest on September 3.

Know Where Your Bus is with BONGO

Beginning this fall, area transit riders will have the ability to access real-time bus information that covers all fleets and routes in the Coralville/Iowa City area, including details about a bus's actual location and arrival time information for each stop. Coralville Transit, Iowa City Transit, and the University of Iowa will be implementing the passenger information system to make transit riding more efficient, improve passenger safety, and boost the convenience of area public transit services.

Known as BONGO (Bus on the Go), this system will benefit transit riders who want to minimize wait time at the bus stop by knowing how soon their bus will arrive. The high-tech bus amenity works via a GPS transmitter placed on each bus, sending a signal every 10 seconds which is matched to the latitude and longitude of the bus route. Web, voice, and SMS texting features will allow the public to access the whereabouts of a bus and its expected arrival time.

More than just a passenger convenience, the BONGO system will allow area transit management and bus dispatchers to track and monitor their vehicles and operators to optimize transit schedules and service efficiency. Data from automatic passenger counters will be used to evaluate the need for additional routes and stops. Engine diagnostics will provide transit management with real-time information on many engine variables to identify maintenance issues before they become serious.

How to Use BONGO:

Each bus stop will have a sign with a bus stop number, which will be used to obtain bus information; stop numbers will also be available at www.ebongo.org. Riders can check their bus location and expected arrival time by:

- ① Using a handheld smart device (such as an iPhone or Blackberry) or computer to visit www.ebongo.org
- ① Texting 'nbus bongo' with the bus stop number to 41001
- ① Calling 319.471.4155

For more information, contact Coralville Transit at 319.248.1790 or watch www.ebongo.org.

Did You Know?

With BONGO, riders can opt to receive an SMS or "text" message on a mobile phone when the bus is a few minutes away from their stop!

Mobile Wi-Fi is Coming!

Coralville Transit buses will soon be equipped with mobile Wi-Fi, allowing passengers with a laptop or other Wi-Fi-enabled device access to the internet during their ride.

Community Fund Launches Grant Cycle

Coralville Community Fund has launched its fifth annual grant cycle. The Fund is building an endowment to provide financial support for a broad range of charitable needs and community projects throughout Coralville, both now and in the future.

In its first four grant cycles, the Fund awarded nearly $25,000 to a broad range of recipients, including Coralville Public Library, Coralville Central PTO, Iowa Children's Museum, City Circle Acting Company of Coralville, Coralville Family Resource Center, Babe Ruth Baseball Organization, Johnson County Historical Society, Safety Village, Coralville Center for the Performing Arts, and others.

The economic recession has negatively impacted local charitable programs and community projects and will continue to impact them in the coming months and years. This downturn illustrates the importance of building a community endowment that can provide much needed support.

Contributions to the Endowment Fund in 2010 are fully deductible for Federal income tax purposes, and are eligible for a 25 percent Iowa income tax credit under the Endow Iowa Program. This bonus is only available for endowment gifts to community foundations, and Coralville Community Fund is an affiliate of Community Foundation of Johnson County.

Grant applications must be submitted electronically by October 1 and are available at <http://communityfoundationofjohnsoncounty.org/pages/grant-application.php>. Grants will be awarded in January 2011.

Contributions to the Coralville Community Fund should be sent c/o Community Foundation of Johnson County, 325 East Washington Street, Iowa City, Iowa 52240. For more information, please contact Mike Stoffregen, Executive Director, at 319.337.0483.

Stormwater Management with Trees

Interested in managing the stormwater on your property? Recent stormwater management techniques have primarily focused on infiltration practices such as rain gardens or bio-retention. What if your soil is not suitable for infiltration? You could install a tree. Tree canopies minimize the impact of rain, and several species have root systems that thrive in wet areas. The right tree in the right place could make an area previously viewed as unusable a little more desirable.

Options suitable for areas that can be wet for extended periods of time include:

Willow

Bald Cypress

River Birch

Swamp White Oak

Tree cover studies utilizing these types of trees have proven to reduce stormwater runoff rates and total runoff. By reducing runoff, you are taking an active role in stormwater management. To learn more, contact Kelly Swenson at the Coralville Engineering Department at 319.248.1720 or kswenson@ci.coralville.ia.us.

Fall Leaf Collection Tips

- Place leaves curbside in biodegradable yard waste bags or a 33-gallon container with an annual yard waste sticker for pickup on your regular garbage day. Loose leaf piles will not be collected
- Consider mulching or composting leaves as an alternative leaf disposal method
- Do not place leaves in plastic bags. Leaves in plastic bags cannot be recycled
- Do not rake leaves into streets, ditches, or any drainage way. This will obstruct the flow of stormwater runoff
- Yard waste will be picked up until snowfall begins or November 30, and is available to all City residences eligible for curbside trash and recycling services

Biodegradable yard waste bags can be purchased at Coralville Hy-Vee, Lench and Cilek Ace Hardware, and City Hall for $1 per bag. Annual yard waste stickers can be purchased for $25 at City Hall.

Convenient Utility Bill Payment Options

There are easy, free services available to pay your utility bill 24 hours a day, in addition to payment options by mail, in person, and the drive up drop box at the City Hall parking lot:

- Sign up for Autopay, an automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account on the due date of your bill. You will continue to receive a bill in the mail to view the charges in advance. Sign up at www.coralville.org/autopay or call 319.248.1715 to request an application form.
- Pay online using Visa, Mastercard, or Discover at www.coralville.org and click the Pay Online button. You will be asked to enter your account number and your last name.
