

4th Annual FRY fest on September 7 Full of Hawkeye Flavor With a Cyclone Twist

Kick off the fall season at the fourth annual FRY fest, a “celebration of all that is Hawkeye” presented by the Eastern Iowa Airport, on Friday, September 7, in Coralville’s Iowa River Landing. The festival, named in honor of former University of Iowa football coach Hayden Fry, offers free family-friendly activities throughout the day for both sports aficionados and those looking for a one-of-a-kind community event.

FRY fest 2012 pays tribute to the 35th anniversary of the renewal of the Iowa vs. Iowa State football rivalry on the day before the Hawkeyes take on the Cyclones in Kinnick Stadium.

Activities All Day

At the FRY fest car show, presented by Carousel Nissan, classic cars and tailgate vehicles flaunt their Hawkeye pride along Quarry Road from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. To enter your ride, visit www.FRYfest.com.

Those with black and gold (or cardinal and gold) running through their veins can give back at the FRY fest UI DeGowin Blood Center blood drive located at the Marriott from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm.

Come hungry and satisfy your cravings at Tailgate Row! A variety of food vendors line Quarry Road from 11:00 am to 7:00 pm.

The free tradeshow, held inside the Coralville Marriott Hotel and Conference Center from 10:00 am until 8:00 pm, features the most diverse line yet of licensed Hawkeye and Cyclone apparel, jewelry, gadgets, furniture, customized products, and more available for purchase.

The day is filled with appearances by current and former student athletes and coaches, autograph sessions, door prizes, radio remotes and interviews, activities, special appearances, panel discussions, a “small fry” zone, food, and more.

Evening Excitement

On the pep rally stage on Quarry Road, the Minnesota-based band, The Last Ride, performs a free concert at 5:00 pm.

The FRY fest pep rally begins at 6:00 pm with the full University of Iowa Marching Band and appearances by Fran McCaffery, Dan Gable, and Hayden Fry. Unique to this year’s event is the ROTC Game Ball Run with the official game ball for the Hawkeye/Cyclone game.

The outdoor, ticketed FRY fest concert, presented by Two Rivers Bank and Trust, features Lee Brice at 7:00 pm followed by Sara Evans at 8:30 pm (see article, next page). Food and beverages are available for purchase on site. All concert and beverage garden proceeds raise funds for Coralville’s 4thFEST celebration.

FRY fest is open to the public and is sponsored by the City of Coralville, Iowa City/ Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the University of Iowa.

Coralville Transit and Cambus offer free shuttle service, open to the public, to and from the Iowa River Landing (see the detachable schedule, cover).

Hawkeye Collector’s Showcase & Frank Fritz

10:00 am – 1:00 pm & 4:00 – 7:00 pm

The Hawkeye Collector’s Showcase, located in the Oakdale Ballroom at the Marriott, is an extraordinary opportunity for collectors to exhibit their Hawkeye collectables and memorabilia. A limited number of “Small FRY” collectable buttons will be handed out to the youngest generation of Hawkeye collectors during the second session. If you are interested in showcasing your memorabilia, please call 319.337.6592.

FRY fest welcomes Frank Fritz from the HISTORY Channel’s American Pickers. Fritz will kick off the tradeshow at 10:00 am with an autograph session, and value pre-selected Hawkeye memorabilia and answer questions at 11:30 am.

FALL 2012

Sara Evans & Lee Brice in Concert

Friday, September 7, 7:00 pm

End the day with an evening of music, great food, and beverages at the ticketed outdoor FRY fest concert featuring country star Sara Evans. At 7:00 pm, special guest Lee Brice kicks off the night on the Two Rivers Bank & Trust stage, adjacent to the Coralville Marriott Hotel and Conference Center. This year features larger concert grounds and additional on-site concert parking.

Lee Brice walks a path between traditional honky tonk and contemporary rock. Brice has charted a string of singles including "She Ain't Right," "Happy Endings," and "Upper Middle Class White Trash." Brice's 2009 release, "Love Like Crazy," peaked at No. 3 on Billboard's country songs chart. With 56 weeks on the chart, the track made history by breaking Eddy Arnold's 54-week stay with "Bouquet of Roses," which debuted in May 1948. Brice's "A Woman Like You" reached number one in April 2012.

At 8:30 pm, multi-platinum RCA recording artist Sara Evans takes the stage. Evans has been honored as the 2006 Academy of Country Music's Female Vocalist of the Year, named one of People magazine's "50 Most Beautiful People," won the hearts of television viewers in ABC's Dancing with the Stars, and received the Country Music Association's Video of the Year Award for "Born to Fly." She enjoys a prolific recording career with over 5 million records sold and five chart-topping number one country singles. Her sixth studio album, Stronger, debuted at No. 1 for two weeks and features the platinum multi-week No. 1 single, "A Little Bit Stronger."

Flood Mitigation Projects Move Ahead

I-JOBS II Storm Water Improvements Project

Construction is 60% complete on the project to construct earthen berms and flood walls along the west side of Clear Creek from Highway 6 to Biscuit Creek and along Biscuit Creek from Clear Creek to 5th Street, as well as storm water detention ponds within Biscuit Creek between 5th Street and Clear Creek. Substantial completion is anticipated in November 2012, with seeding to be completed in the spring of 2013. (See photos, next page)

Community Development Block Grant Storm Water Pump Stations

This project involves the construction of two new storm water pump stations - located on the former Movie Gallery property and on the former Coralville Transit property - and upgrading an existing storm water pump station at 1st Avenue south of Clear Creek. This project is 30% complete with completion anticipated in the spring of 2013. (See photos, next page)

CRANDIC Flood Mitigation Project

The CRANDIC Flood Mitigation Project, which involves flood protection improvements along the Iowa River from west of Rocky Shore Drive to the north end of the Iowa River Power Company Restaurant parking lot, will:

- Raise the CRANDIC Railroad embankment
- Raise and lengthen the CRANDIC Railroad Bridge over Clear Creek
- Construct earthen berms and concrete flood walls along the Hawkeye Ready Mix and MidAmerican Energy Company sub-station sites
- Construct removable flood walls along the Iowa River Power Company Restaurant property

This project was bid in July 2012 and was awarded to Peterson Contractors Inc. Construction will begin in August 2012 and is anticipated to be completed in the spring of 2014. (See photo, below)

Projects

The three new ponds under construction along Biscuit Creek south of 5th Street will provide stormwater detention during and after storms, improve the quality of water runoff from Biscuit Creek into Clear Creek, and be a distinct landscape feature.

The new stormwater pump station on 3rd Avenue will help protect properties north of Clear Creek.

In addition to two new stormwater pump stations, the CDBG project will also upgrade this existing pump station east of 1st Avenue and south of Clear Creek that was built following the flood of 1993.

The 1876 Coralville Schoolhouse on 5th Street sits at the northwest corner of the CDBG and I-JOBS II projects.

Fall Leaf Pickup

Curbside pickup of yard waste, including fall leaves, is available on regular garbage days until November 30 or the first winter snow-fall. Residents may place leaves curbside in Coralville biodegradable yard waste bags, place leaves in a 33-gallon container with an annual yard waste sticker, or mulch or compost leaves for their own use.

Biodegradable yard waste bags can be purchased at Coralville Hy-Vee, Leno and Cilek Ace Hardware, and City Hall for $1 per bag. Annual yard waste stickers can be purchased for $25 at City Hall.

Advantages of Curbside Pickup

Coralville's curbside leaf collection offers many benefits, including frequent collection, minimized environmental impact, and safety.

Weekly curbside pickup of bagged or canned leaves allows residents to dispose of leaves frequently throughout the fall, usually on their regularly scheduled garbage day. Other collection options, such as vacuum trucks, operate on a more limited schedule.

While some leaves naturally find their way into the gutter, the quantity is greatly reduced by containing leaf piles at the curb in biodegradable bags or yard waste cans. Loose leaves raked in advance to curbs can blow back into yards, or worse yet, clog storm drains, obstructing the flow of stormwater runoff and carrying lawn pollutants into waterways. Contained leaves also improve safety for bicyclists and pedestrians traveling on sidewalks or near the curb.

Leaf Collection Tips

When cleaning up fall leaves, please follow these tips:

- Don't place leaves in plastic bags; they cannot be recycled
- Don't rake leaves into streets, ditches, or drainage ways
- Loose leaf piles will not be collected

Alternatives to Raking – Leave the Leaves

Leaves don't have to be lawn litter; they can be an asset used to improve lawns and decrease the use of harmful fertilizers.

For those who prefer not to bag leaves, consider mowing your yard with the bag attached. The partially-shredded leaves can be used as mulch around gardens and landscaped areas, or raked into gardens to decompose over the winter.

To feed your lawn and cut down on the need to bag leaves, mow over the leaves with the grass catcher off the mower, and then let nature do its work by turning the leaves into nutrients for your lawn without harmful chemicals. The mower chops up the dried leaves and grass clippings and deposits them back into the turf, while mowing your lawn to a uniform height.

Leaves can be recycled by adding them to a compost pile or bin. Compost, a rich soil product made up of decomposed organic matter like yard waste and kitchen scraps, improves the soil quality of gardens, lawns, trees, plants, and shrubs.

Stormwater/Library

Meet Amy Johannsen, Stormwater Management

Amy Johannsen joined the City of Coralville Engineering Department in June. Johannsen coordinates the City's Stormwater Management Program.

As an engineering inspector for the City, Amy ensures compliance with regulations mandated by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and Iowa Department of Natural Resources (IDNR). She works with developers and builders in Coralville to ensure that proper stormwater quality and erosion control measures are met throughout the land development process so that dirt, debris, waste, and other pollutants don't wind up in storm drains and local waterways. Amy makes sure that developers and builders follow specific regulations so that each construction site operates according to their National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit. Amy also oversees public water quality awareness through education, outreach, and enforcement.

Amy has a Bachelor's degree in Geography from the University of Iowa and previously worked for the City of Davenport with the post construction aspect of their Municipal Separate Stormwater Sewer System permit, including rain gardens, porous paving, bio-retention, and soil quality restoration. She and her fiancé are relocating to Coralville from Davenport.

How Stormwater Quality Is Monitored

Stormwater caused by runoff events impacts the water quality in lakes, rivers, and streams. The City of Coralville, like many other cities, is required to control the impact they have on water quality through their National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) Permit Program. Amy Johannsen ensures that the City is meeting its requirements.

Coralville's Municipal Separate Stormwater Sewer System (MS4) permit requires the City to monitor current water quality conditions, to make sure construction sites do not contribute sediment to local streams, and to ensure that facilities and activities are not polluting local waters. The City is also required to develop planning procedures that incorporate water quality practices such as rain gardens, bio-retention cells, native landscaping, soil quality restoration, and porous paving into existing and future infrastructure.

As part of the NPDES permit, Coralville provides public education on stormwater pollution and solutions. To learn more about how you can be the solution to water pollution, contact Amy Johannsen at ajohannsen@ci.coralville.ia.us or 319.248.1733.

Fall Into Book Discussions

This fall features two community book discussion programs, All Iowa Reads and One Community, One Book, designed to get Iowans reading and talking together about a common book.

All Iowa Reads: This year's All Iowa Reads selection is Strength in What Remains by Tracy Kidder, the true story of Deogratias, a young physician from Burundi, who survives genocide only to find himself a homeless émigré in America. Find out how he beats homelessness, graduates from Columbia University, and returns to Burundi to open health clinics. Join us on Tuesday, September 25, at 7:00 pm to talk about his difficult but ultimately uplifting story.

One Community, One Book is a project of the University of Iowa Center for Human Rights that asks readers to immerse themselves in another person's world each year. The Late Homecomer: A Hmong Family Memoir by Kao Kalia Yang, deals with how one Hmong family escaped Laos and Thailand to come to the U.S. and settle in Minnesota. The stories of refugees form part of our country's past and part of its future. Join us on Thursday, October 18, at 7:00 pm to discuss Yang's moving and timely story.

The 30th Anniversary of Banned Books Week

September 30 to October 6

To celebrate every American's freedom to read what they choose, and to draw attention to the harms of censorship, the Library will again stage a "live display" of people reading banned or challenged books during Banned Books Week.

To publicly read challenged or banned books in the display, please contact Kate Dale, Collection Services Librarian, at 319.248.1866 or kdale@coralville.lib.ia.us.

It's a Mystery

The Library's long-running mystery book discussion group meets on the second Wednesday of the month at 10:00 am. Titles for the fall are:

- Road to Perdition by Max Allen Collins (mystery written as a graphic novel)
- The Damage Done by Hilary Davidson (Anthony award winner for best first novel)
- A Trace of Smoke by Rebecca Cantrell (crime novel set in 1931 Germany)

This Library event for grownups features showings of book-based films. Admission is free and refreshments, including fresh popcorn, are provided.

Wednesday, August 29, 6:00 pm

True Grit (PG-13)

Directed by the Coen brothers. Starring Jeff Bridges, Matt Damon, and Josh Brolin. Based on the novel by Charles Portis. Approximately 2 hours.

Tuesday, October 30, 6:00 pm

Interview with the Vampire (R)

Starring Tom Cruise, Brad Pitt, Christian Slater, and Antonio Banderas. Based on the gothic novel by Anne Rice. Approximately 2 hours.

10:00 am

Bring the written word to life through reading and discussion of classic and contemporary plays and musicals. For more information, contact Mike Jorgensen at 319.248.1850 or mjorgensen@coralville.lib.ia.us.

A New Place for Parks & Recreation Programming

The opening of Norman Borlaug Elementary School, located on the north side of Kennedy Parkway east of Camp Cardinal Boulevard, expands Parks and Recreation programming on the southern side of Coralville. Under a partnership with the Iowa City Community School District, funding from the City to upsize the gymnasium extends the following recreational opportunities to the community:

- Before and After School Program (BASP): Coralville Parks and Recreation offers a full-service BASP at Borlaug, one of five BASPs administered in Coralville through Parks and Recreation which serve over 310 children.
- Gym Access: Community open gym times, available November through April twice a week, are located at Borlaug, Van Allen, and Wickham elementary schools.
- Practice and Programming Space: The Borlaug gym will be a site for league practices and parks and recreation programs.
- Parks & Recreation Office: The public may register at Borlaug for parks and recreation programs during BASP office hours.

The Borlaug gym is a full-size, 7,760 square foot gymnasium that features a regulation-size hardwood basketball court that can be divided into two smaller gyms, a large climbing wall, bleachers, natural lighting, direct access to restrooms, and equipment storage rooms.

Eagle Scouts Complete Projects in Coralville

Two Eagle Scouts recently completed projects in Coralville for public use.

Bicycle Racks

Patrick Hagan of Boy Scout Troop #2000 completed a bicycle rack infill project that installed bike racks in the First Avenue and Highway 6 business districts.

Hagan approached businesses about participating in a cost share program to install racks at their locations. Businesses paid 25% of the cost of the racks and the remainder of the funding was provided through a grant from the Community Foundation of Johnson County. Hagan coordinated the locations with the owners and installed the racks. His project supports Coralville's efforts to be a bicycle-friendly community.

Bike parking is now available at these locations:

Cactus • Chong's Market • Hawkeye Audio • Iowa Bicycle Coalition • Iowa City Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau • Jade Sisters • Midwest One • Randall's Plaza • Riverview Square • Sparti's Gyros • Taco John's • The Vine

Bird Blind

Michael Hayworth of Boy Scout Troop #207 built a bird blind at Rotary Camp Park on a concrete pad that was formerly a first aid station when the park was a scout camp.

The Don Conley Bird Blind, named for Hayworth's grandfather who he credits with helping him to learn to appreciate nature, provides a place where bird watchers can sit, lower the small windows in the blind, and observe birds in their natural habitat. Benches were repurposed from a ball field and identification signs are provided inside the blind.

Use of the Bird Blind

Residents may reserve the Don Conley Bird Blind through the Coralville Recreation Center. A $10 deposit, name, and contact information is required to check out the key. Please call 319.248.1750 for more information.

The Coralville Connection is published quarterly for the citizens of Coralville, Iowa, and is designed to keep residents informed of city policies and developments. If you have comments or suggestions concerning this or future issues, please contact:

Tie the Trail Together

Celebrate the completion of the first trailhead on the Clear Creek Trail at the Camp Cardinal Trailhead on Tuesday, September 25. This ceremony will commemorate the opening of the new trailhead and the completion of an additional 1,650 feet of the Clear Creek Trail. Funding for this project was provided by a congressional appropriation from Senator Tom Harkin's office.

The trailhead features restrooms, shelter, an information kiosk, parking, and a ramp for access to Clear Creek by small water craft. The trailhead is eagerly awaited by trail users. "Many people have expressed an interest in using the Clear Creek Trail that need to park near it. This trailhead will give our community that access," commented Sherri Proud, Director of Parks and Recreation.

The event will also feature recognition of the new storm water buffer installed in May through a grant obtained by the Clear Creek Watershed Committee. The grant, through Trees Forever, assisted the City in completing a native seeding area and installing storm water check dams through the run off area next to Camp Cardinal Boulevard. These efforts will help slow and filter water before it reaches Clear Creek. The Clear Creek Watershed Committee's mission is to "keep Clear Creek clear" and this is just one effort in that endeavor.

The Clear Creek Trail presently is 4.3 miles long in Coralville. This fall, an additional 1,900 feet will be built with a Federal Recreation Trails grant. The City continues to seek grant funding for the remaining 1.2 miles of trail that will connect to the Tiffin border and allow users to go west through Tiffin to Kent Park.

Fire Prevention Week: October 7-13

Have Two Ways Out

It is important to have a fire escape plan that prepares everyone in the home to think fast and get out quickly when the smoke alarm sounds. Having two ways out is a key part of the plan, especially if your first escape route is blocked by smoke or flames. The reality is that when fire strikes, your home could be engulfed in smoke and flames in just minutes. In recognition of fire prevention week, make and review a fire escape plan in your household which includes two ways out of every room.

Fire Department Open House

Sunday, October 14
Noon to 4:00 pm
Where: Fire Station #1, 1501 5th Street
What: The public is invited to get a closer look at firefighting equipment, take part in activities for kids, and get additional information about protecting your family from fire.

Recycling Options & Special Disposal

Curbside Recycling

Coralville picks up curbside recycling the same day as garbage. All curbside recycling containers must be City-issued yellow bins with black lids. The bins may be checked out at City Hall at no charge, and replacement bins are $15.

Each home may have two recycling bins upon request. Second recycling bins are available from City Hall at no charge.

Safe Disposal of Compact Fluorescent Light Bulbs (CFLs)

Recycling compact fluorescent light bulbs prevents the release of mercury into the environment since CFLs and other fluorescent bulbs often break when they end up in a landfill. Recycling CFLs and other fluorescent bulbs allows the reuse of the glass, metals, and other materials that make up fluorescent lights. Virtually all components of a fluorescent bulb can be recycled.

Recycle CFLs at the following locations:

Ace Hardware
1703 2nd St.

Lowe's Home Improvement
2701 2nd St.

Iowa City Landfill & Recycling Center
3900 Hebl Ave., Iowa City

Plastic Bag Recycling

Hy-Vee
1914 8th St.

Lowe's Home Improvement
2701 2nd St.

Target
1441 Coral Ridge Ave.

Walmart
2801 Commerce Dr.

Drop-Off Recycling

Recyclables may be dropped off at the Coralville Recycling Center, which accepts the same items as curbside recycling.
